

Martyn Lawrence Bullard in his West Hollywood office.

5. The Marchesa Casati.

11. John Kelly chocolates.

1 / SIR JOHN SOANE'S MUSEUM
The London home of the Regency architect and collector is an eternal source of inspiration.

2 / VÉTIVER EAU DE TOILETTE
I've worn this Guerlain scent since I was 15.

3 / CHICKEN AND MASHED POTATOES
My favorite is the crispy chicken at Sur restaurant in West Hollywood.

4 / SCARVES
One of my signature looks. I love the selection at John Varvatos. I wore his fringed satin scarf to the Oscars.

5 / THE MARCHESA CASATI: PORTRAITS OF A MUSE
An inspiringly decadent true tale of a bizarre Italian aristocrat.

6 / MY MAJORELLE FABRIC
My office is covered in this linen, and my dining room sports it proudly as drapes.

7 / PAUL EVANS CITYSCAPE FURNITURE
It's my current passion. The '70s are back with a bang! Studio 54 madness!

8 / TOMMY HILFIGER'S RICKY PEACOCK
Easy to travel with, and it transitions from day to night.

9 / OLAY REGENERIST
I've used the most expensive creams over the years, but the products in this line are my current skin champions.

10 / LOREE RODKIN JEWELRY
My fingers are bare without her baubles.

11 / JOHN KELLY CHOCOLATES
The Dark Chocolate with French Grey Sea Salt truffles are delicious.

12 / EARL GREY TEA BY MARIAGE FRÈRES
It comes in the chicest little French muslin sachets. Makes modern-day tea drinking into an art form.

MARTYN LAWRENCE BULLARD

12 THINGS HE CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

Martyn Lawrence Bullard may have been born in London, but he was clearly destined for Hollywood. The actor-turned-interior designer—an L.A. resident since 1992—is as renowned for his celebrity clients (Elton John, Cher, Tommy Hilfiger) as for his own star turns on TV shows like Bravo's Million Dollar Decorators. Bullard is currently juggling an array of projects, from a new Santa Barbara hotel to a wallpaper and fabric collection for Schumacher based on vintage Venetian papers. Up next? Redoing Justin Bieber's former home for Khloé Kardashian. "Celebrities really do want to live out their fantasies," says the ascot-wearing A-List designer. "So I get to do everything from Tuscan villas to Moroccan riads." BY INGRID ABRAMOVITCH

10. A Loree Rodkin ring.

2. Guerlain fragrance.

1. Sir John Soane's Museum.

6. Majorelle fabric.

8. Tommy Hilfiger peacoat.

7. Paul Evans Cityscape furniture.

12. Earl Grey tea.

ELLEDECOR®

BEST of the BEST

THE A-LIST ISSUE

DAZZLING CITY
HOMES & CHIC COUNTRY
RETREATS BY
AMERICA'S TOP
TALENTS